

Environmental Policy

Issue II, Kamienna Góra, 1. December 2017

Introduction:

This policy will be applied to the company Świat Lnu Sp. z o. o.
in Kamienna Góra.

Management of the Company is aware of the environmental impact it has, thus ensuring the quality of the services provided while respecting the environment, undertakes to establish and maintain high standards of environmental protection in accordance with the applicable law regulations, treating environmental protection as an important element of its activities which significantly affect its development and strengthens the confidence of all interested parties in the Company.

Management has set strategic objectives:

- Compliance with legal requirements in the field of environmental protection;
- Reducing the negative environmental impact of the company's activities by preventing and reducing air, soil and groundwater pollution;
- Rational use of raw materials, materials, energy and water;
- Appropriate management of waste arising from processes with particular regard to the transfer to recycling or further disposal of waste.

These objectives are to be achieved by:

- Compliance with all applicable environmental legislation;
- Analysis and assessment of the environmental impact of the Company's operations and processes;
- Managing processes in a way that allows the Company to continually reduce its negative environmental impact;
- Selection of appropriate materials, equipment and technologies as environmentally friendly as possible;
- Taking into account the environmental impact of the project at the decision-making stage and planning appropriate preventive action against pollution;
- Reducing the use of energy media, by rationalizing water, electricity, heat and gas consumption;
- Constantly increasing the environmental awareness of workers, shaping appropriate attitudes aimed at improving the environment;
- Working with environmental suppliers and subcontractors, promoting environmental behavior;

naturalnie

- Continuous improvement of the effectiveness and efficiency of the environmental management system, including identification of potential risks from the Company for the environment.

The Management Board of the Company undertakes to allocate adequate resources to the objectives of the environment policy, to monitor the activities undertaken and to ensure that this policy is known, understood and respected by all employees of the Company.

This policy is generally available to all interested parties inside and outside the Company.